

A diverse media is essential to democracy. Do not change your regulations to allow more media ownership by the same entity in each market. You will create more ClearChannel type operations, which are detrimental to democracy. Also, reinstitute the fairness doctrine